France's Guillaume Samica celebrates the victory over Brazil

Fukuoka/Nagano/Saitama/Sendai, 19th November 2006 – France took revenge for this year's World League final defeat by beating defending World Champions Brazil in the first round of the FIVB Men's World Championship on Sunday. The victory came on another strong day for the European teams, with the continent sweeping the top spot in all four of the first round pools after three days. Â Â
